Recent studies show abundance of drool.

According to stymie labs, recent studies shows that the Corsair known as Sir Kaz deKinky is, in fact, a drooler.

After participating in a 16 hour funded study, Sir Kaz was show to have produced an over abundance of saliva, thus causing a phenomenon known as "mouth breathing." This phenomenon is used to distinguish mongoloid, low brow, Neanderthal man from modern man, or as an insult in some communities.

This affliction, which is carried from birth by the afflicted individual also causes the saliva to drip from the corners of their mouth, thus causing the "drool" associated with gross stupidity, or being an inbred banjo player.

According to a fellow Corsair member, Sir Oreo, "Kaz plays a HELLA banjo!" "There have

Sean-Carltons Hairdresser SPEAKS!

Vuzlyn, Sean-Carltons hairdresser has finally broken his silence and decided to tell all in his new book "The lies Saracens Tell."

In his Book, Mr. Lyn has bared all and exposed Sean-Carltons sordid and twisted lifestyle that he has kept hidden from the public for over 6 months!

According to Mr. Lyn, as was stated in a recent email to a public forum, he states in his book "I guess I get to tell all about what the two Saracens did to each other on the trip back from RW. All I can say is, I will never see the world the same again. They have warped my fragile little mind"

Mr. Lyn, who has refrained from speaking on the more sordid affairs affected upon by Sean-Carlton and one Sir. Ewin McFaddin, lines out in his tell all book about some more "disturbing" aspects of this dastardly duo.

"This one time, at band camp, in the rising winds, Sean-Carlton had me trim his hair WHILE I WAS NEKKIDI!" Mr. Lyn explains in his book. "I didn't want to, but he said that if I didn't, he would have me kicked out of the land!"

Other reports include various acts with sheep and hair conditioner, as well as sordid intimacies with the other 100gabilzzilon Saracens across the land.

been nights were we've been sitting around the campfire back at Corsair camp, and he busts out with his banjo and plays the SH*T outta that thang" Mrs. Oreo had to say. "The only problem is when he plays, he gets a little cross-eyed, and that makes me a little uncomfortable."

In various research articles and websites, scientist have linked the problem of drooling with that of different antisocial behavior, as well. Research shows that heavy droolers can, and do, act out in social situations that prove to be in appropriate.

"We were at a Clan one year, oh, bout aught-1" rambles on local, Sir Nevron. "We were sittin back in the common eatin area when Kaz just ups and drops his pant down to his ankles. He didn't explain why, he just did."

"There was this one event we went to down in the Wetlands," recounts Larin Moonstar, " where he just started crappin into his hand and flinging it at folks! He started yelling something about being part of Clan DungFlinger, straight from Ireland or something. I figure he just had been hanging around with the zoo monkeys too much."

When out of the woodwork tried to contact either Mr. DeKinky himself, or any of his family members, we were met with closed doors and invitations to perform unlikely acts upon our mothers. We here at "out of the woodwork" would like to extend out deepest sympathies for Mr. Dekinky's family for their horrible loss of intelligence and decorum. We would also like to extend our warmest regrets about being turned down from being able to perform in the Jim Rose Freakshows' little stage. We heard that Bridgette the Midget and her tunnel of Love beat out your drooling idiots on crack montage

Sean-Carlton nabbed in deep probe!

Wednesday, the 25th.

On Wednesday, the 25th, Regent-elect candidate Sean Carlton was charged by the RGK for cruelty to animals, operating a hair saloon without a license, sexual misconduct with underage monkeys, and being a member of the Saracen's.

Mr. Carlton had been the center of a DEEP PROBE operation by the RGK that stems from a 1999 charge leveled against him by an unidentified Jane Doe.

Mrs. Doe alleged, in her 1999 testimony, that as she was partaking in a nature walk throughout the tanglewood forest area, she saw Mr. Carlton kicking several of the stray dogs known to frequent the area.

While a victim of being chased by those same dogs, Mrs. Doe felt that it was her civic duty to report Mr. Carlton to the RGK for cruelty to animals. "Plus" she is quoted by the RGK on tape "He's a member of the Saracen's. I've witnessed him strike members of his company on several occasions, and that's the most punishing type of abuse possible. That of abusing animals that put their trust in you humans."

Also, the RGK found, Mr. Carlton has been operating an illegal bordello out of the back of his Tent, where he was videotaped fornicating with under aged monkeys. The photographic evidence is so graphic to reprint in this periodical, but needless to say, there are websites available that Mr. Carlton was turned up on, having sold these home made movies for money.

As reported earlier in this very periodical, Mr. Carlton also has been operating a hair salon, that has come to light as being a front for his brothel tent. Upon examining public records, the RGK found that his license to operate that establishment had been revoked in late 2001. Connections with Al-Quida had been sited at the time, as well as allegations of nude Brazilian Waxing schemes.'

When we attempted to contact Mr. Carlton's Legal council, we received a no comment. Calls to Mr. Carlton's tent have gone unanswered, and as a Saracen we know better than to look on the ditch field.
