The artist responsible for the caricatures would like to remain anonymous for making work of a controversial nature. THANK YOU!!!!!! But that was last issue, and by now, everyone knows that the artist is none other than...well, maybe next issue.

In the last Tales of the Burning Lands, I invited any of the populace of Amtgard to submit articles, poetry, drawings, letters to the editor, editorials, etc. The invitation is still open. It doesn't take any special thing to get your work printed, except to give it to any of the editorial staff. As I wrote last time, I will print it as you write it as long as you are willing to sign your name to it. The only things I have so far for the newsletter this time are some art work that wasn't printed in the last newsletter and most of the rest is all from King Aramithris on the Crown and Tourney results and Lady Gwynne was kind enough to give me some of her drawings. If you have something that you would like to say, or questions that you want answered, take writing implement to hand, and have your say. Tales of the Burning Lands is, after all, the newsletter of the populace of Amtgard.

BEST NEW FIGHTER

MUSTAPHA (Recieved the Ring of Power)

HISTORY

September 13: Tales of the Burnings Lands, Vol 2, #4 published by Ryah. Multiple flag battles plus a combination fl ag/zombie battle at night. Several new people join.

September 20: Much of Amtgard crashes Peter Le Grue's Tourney. Introduction of the Shield wall and cavalry verses infantry scenarios. Alay-in loses a head butting contest with the bridge.

September 27: Seige, Flag, and zombie battles. Gilos and Tannee become the first people to have played every class. M'Deth departs on a great journey.

October 4: Declarations for Crown due and Guildmaster elections initiated. Costume party at Scarhart's residence-15 or 20 Amtgardians attend.

October 11: Crown Qualification Events were held in 31 different categories. Based on a system of 1st-3 pts, 2d-2 pts, and 3d-1 pt, Aramithris was the overall winner with 32 pts and Aredhel was 2d with 15 points. The Claw Legion outscored all other companies combined 85-57. Guildmaster elections were completed.

October 18: Crown Election-Aramithris elected as monarch with Ariona as his consort. Crown tourney won by Aredhel, making him Champion of the Kingdom. Andre finished second and became the Princess' Defender. Nashomi brought out a movie camera to film Amtgard and showed these "home"movies" at the abode of Ryah later that evening. Official formation of the Warlords of Valhalla.

October 25: Crown Coronation Feast sponsored by Ariona, Joella, and Esuom. Court: King Aramithris, Princess Consort Ariona, Champion Aredhel, Defender Andre, Jester and Court Herald Aron, and Bard Scarhart. Guildmaster belt favors, King's and Princess' Guard, and orders were awarded at this time. Titles of Nobility awarded: Aredhel-Earl, Kalibria-Countess, Buynne-Lady. Ryah was knighted into the Order of the Flame. Gifts to the monarchy presented by Gwynne and Esuom. Joella became the new scribe. Paid attendance was 50, though closer to 70 individuals made an appearance at the feast. Entertainment was provided by the Minstrels and Theatrical Guilds. Talon and Spandex Dave wed in Amtgard by Aramithris in a ceremony that afternoon.

October 30: Kam'Aron wears combined Amtgard-S.C.A. armor to a pep rally at his school.

November 1: Weaponmaster Tourney sponsored by Aramithris. Aredhel wins, Rine-o takes second and Kurse places third. The Claw Legion edges out Cathorin in total team points.

November 8: Three flag battles plus a good versus evil battle-the forces of good were triumphant. Party at the abode of Grimbold (ground work established for a possible Amtgard in Albuquerque, N.M.) "Sue What", the first Garber's Guild publication, published by Gwynne.
