I Introduction

A. Amtgard

1. Amtgard is a non-profit, free, non-sectarian group dedicated to the study and recreation of the medieval era and the fantasy and/or historical literature genres
2. The Corpora of Laws and the Rules of Play are guidelines to aid in the interaction of people who participate in this game

B. Standard Disclaimers

1. Amtgard officials (The Board of Directors, Monarch, Prime Minister, Champion, Guildmaster of Reeves, etc.) are not responsible for any injuries sustained while playing Amtgard
2. Amtgard does not provide for religious affiliation. We are a non-sectarian organization
3. Amtgard does not condone any illegal activity or physical violence against another person

C. The Kingdom of the Emerald Hills (A/K/A EH or Kingdom)

1. Amtgard is played under the auspices of Amtgard, Kingdom of the Emerald Hills, Inc. in accordance with the Amtgard Rulebook, this document, and the terms of the Official Park Agreement/Contract
2. This is the largest and topmost unit of Emerald Hills' government and is the umbrella under which all EH members unite

D. Tanglewood Royal Preserve

1. The founding park of the Kingdom
2. Physically located at Lakeside Park in Duncanville, Texas
3. Current Amtgard guidelines prevent the formation of new Kingdoms whose founding town centers are within 150 miles of one another. This is the established heart of our realm for that purpose

II Credit System

A. The Emerald Hills credit system allows a player to be able to (normally) earn a maximum of 2 (Two) attendance credits in their chosen fighting class per week (The Amtgard "week" starts on Tuesday). A player may earn 1 (One) attendance credit per day by attending a regular gaming day at an Amtgard Park. Fighting class credits require playing the chosen class in a battlegame. Players who Reeve may instead earn a Reeve credit. Players who attend, but do not participate in combat (or have reached their fighting class attendance credit maximum for that week) instead earn a Color credit. Note that special event credits do not count towards the maximum. Full credit award breakdowns are listed in the following table:

Credits	Class	Reason
1	Any class played	First regular gaming day of a week
1	Any class played	Second regular gaming day in a week
1/day	Any	Special Events: Crown Qualifications, Weaponmaster, Major events, Adopt-A-Highway Program, Demos, and others as agreed upon at Althing
3	Any	Kingdom Coronation and Kingdom Midreign
5	Any	Attendance at The Gathering of the Clans
Special	Any class played	Monarch's Discretion: The Kingdom Monarch is allowed 3 additional credits per reign to allocate as he/she sees fit for "Special Events." (i.e. Full class Quests, battlegames, etc, developed by the Monarch for the specific purpose of gathering the populace in one place on a pre-set date to encourage play with greater numbers)

- a A Resident of the Emerald Hills must complete the following during the same reign to earn a Hydra (If a player started the process at June Coronation or after, they must complete all requirements before or during December Coronation):
    - i Reeve a Kingdom level fighting tournament or battlegame. (If the candidate chooses, or the event organizer has already selected their reeves, they may shadow one of the reeves. They would be required to stand with a reeve, assist as needed, and otherwise participate for the same time as the reeve, but they would not make calls on any of the fighters)
    - ii Judge a Kingdom level A&S tournament or Workshop. (If the candidate chooses, or the event organizer has already selected their judges, they may shadow the judges. They would be required to sit with the judges, participate in the judging process for the same time as the judges, and discuss entries with and provide scores for entered items. These scores will not count towards the entrants final scores)
    - iii Autocrat or sub-crat (Feast, gate, etc.) a Kingdom level event. (If the candidate chooses, or the Autocrat has already selected the event team, they may co-crat the event or a sub-area of the event as determined by the autocrat. They must work directly with their co-crat and fulfill all the duties expected of their position)
  - b All items listed in section V.A.6.a must be signed off on by one of the other players of the same position (i.e. another reeve, judge, or co-crat).

  - d If there is still a dispute, the final decision will rest with the Kingdom Monarch
  - e Current Kingdom High Officers cannot work towards earning a Hydra while in office
  - f Any qualification listed in section V.A.6.a that cannot be completed at the Kingdom level may instead be done at three park level events. (Help reeve three park level fighting tournaments, etc.) Only one of these may be counted from the player's home park
  - g It is the responsibility of the officers / players in charge of an event (tournament, battlegame, A&S, etc.) to make sure that those seeking to use that event as part of their Hydra qualifications are given the opportunity to do so if space is available. If a scheduled event is cancelled, an alternative offer needs to be made (If a tournament at Coronation is cancelled, then the person who was going to reeve as part of qualifying should be offered a chance to reeve another tournament or battlegame at that event if possible)
  - h Once earned, a Hydra is valid for the next 2 consecutive election cycles. (If a player earns a Hydra by the end of the Dec – June reign, they will be able to run for office during the December elections of that year, or the June elections of the following year without the need to re-earn a Hydra)

- i If the player finishes the Hydra qualifications 4 weeks prior to the current Crown Elections, they may also run for office during that Crown Election. (i.e. During the Dec – June reign, if a player earns a Hydra at least 4 weeks prior to voting, they may run for office for the June Crown Elections, and are still able to run in the next 2 election cycles)
- i As Parks mirror the Kingdom level Election Qualifications, completing the requirements of section V.A.6.a at the level of your home park (or higher) earns a Chimera. Earning a Hydra or a Chimera allows a Resident to meet the requirements of section V.A.6 to run for office at the park level (A person wanting to run for office at a Barony must complete the requirements of section V.A.6.a at the Barony level or higher)
